

Simile

- A comparison using like or as

The kitten was as sweet as pie.

Sleeping on the bed was like sleeping on a cloud.

The kitten slept like a baby.

Metaphor

- A metaphor states that one thing is something else. It is a comparison, but it does not use like or as to make the comparison.

The kitten was a tiger when playing with yarn.

The backyard was his jungle.

The Kitten is a ball of fur.

Simile or Metaphor

- She is as sweet as candy.
- Brandy runs as fast as a cheetah.
- Summer vacation was the light at the end of the tunnel.
- The two friends were like two peas in a pod.
- He was a fish in the pool.
- Her mood was a stormy rain cloud.
- Shawn hopped like a frog across the field.
- Macy is as quiet as a mouse.
- She is as sharp as a tack.
- James is a human calculator.
- The sun was as hot as fire.
- His messy room was a danger zone.
- The sound of her voice was a broken record.
- The box was as light as a feather.
- Her hair was silk.
- Her hands were ice after playing in the snow.

Simile vs. Metaphor

Simile

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Metaphor

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Onomatopoeia:
words that
sound like the objects they name or the sounds those objects make.

Fun in the Rain!

Outside I walk as the the
raindrops fall from the sky,
I look up and bloop, blap, drop
they splash in my eye.

Drip, drop, drip they fall to the ground,

Splish, splash, splish, they make a splashing sound.

They fall in the puddles, I jump
high with my boots,

CRASH I come down making
the water go SWOOSH!

Written by: Kathleen Wainwright. Copyright 2012. All rights reserved.

Alliteration

When two or more words start with the same sound in a sentence.

Five flowers fell to the floor. One was picked up and then there were four. Four flowers then sat on the floor until a breeze from a fan blew them out the front door. They flew in the air and landed near a fox. The fox took the four flowers and sat them behind a rock.

Written by: Kathleen Wainwright. Copyright 2012. All rights reserved.

Personification:
when a writer
makes a non-human object or idea seem like a person.

The leaves danced in the wind.

The rain pounded on the pavement.

The wind howled throughout the night.

The lightning ran across the sky.

POP ROCKIN' Onomatopoeias

1. Taste the Pop Rocks!
2. Write down 5 onomatopoeias that describe what you felt in your mouth.
3. Write 3 descriptive sentences that use the onomatopoeias from your list on the back of this paper.
4. Choose one sentence and rewrite it on the sentence strip. Be sure to illustrate your sentence.

Sweet and Sour Sentences

Alliteration

1. Taste your Sweet Tart or Sour Patch Kid.
2. Think about how it tastes, feels in your mouth, smells, and what it looks like.
3. Write as many adjectives as you can for each.
4. Find adjectives that start with similar letters and write a creative sentence about your candy on the back of this paper.

Looks like
Smells Like
Feels Like
Tastes Like

Sweet and Sour Similes

Alliteration

1. Taste your Sweet Tart or Sour Patch Kid.
2. Fill in the chart explaining how it tastes, smells, feels, and looks.
3. Think about something you can compare it to.
4. Write 5 sentences comparing your candy to something else on the back of this paper.

The yellow sour patch kid was as sour as a lemon.

Look like
Smells Like
Feels Like
Tastes Like

Magnificent Metaphors

1. LOOK at (do not eat) the different types of candy on the mat.
2. Think about how they look, taste, feel, smell, and sound.
3. Think about other objects you can compare them to. Write a creative sentences comparing the two items.
4. Be sure not to use "like" or "as".

The jawbreaker was a rock in my mouth.

Looks Like
Sounds Like
Feels Like
Tastes Like
Smells Like	